L’Shanah Tovah
Have a sweet year!

On behalf of the entire staff and Board of Directors, we would like to wish you and your entire families a Shanah Tovah. May it be a year filled with health, happiness, and Torah.
This week, I received an email from one of the many Jewish organizations who have me on their list. The subject line was the usual Rosh Hashana salutation and well wishes. Indeed, the email began in the familiar fashion – “as the year comes to a close, it is natural for each of us to take stock…” However, as I kept reading I was very surprised. Normally, that sentence would end with a call for introspection, self-reflection and an analysis of where we went wrong, how we failed, and how we can improve.

Instead, in this particular email, the author concludes the sentence by saying, “it is natural for each of us to take stock of our accomplishments.” The message continued by listing a series of achievements and milestones the organization celebrated this past year. At first, I reacted cynically and thought to myself, of course, it is much more convenient to focus on success rather than on failure, but what a distortion of the essence of this time of year.

However, after thinking about it for a moment it occurred to me, that maybe they are on to something. Of course Elul, Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur are a time to consider our shortcomings and how we can grow, but should that necessarily translate into guilt, negativity and a feeling of failure. Perhaps we would do better to identify our successes, our achievements and with pride, reflect on what went right this past year, so that it can be repeated and expanded to other areas of our lives.

Our main task on Rosh Hashana is to be mamlich Hashem, to coronate God as King. In the process, we should recognize how fortunate and blessed we are, not only to be His loyal servants, but as His children to be princes and princesses, members of the royal family. Indeed, we preface Avinu before Malkeinu in our prayers. We should be focused on lifting ourselves up instead of knocking ourselves down.

Spend time these two days thinking about what went wrong, why did it go wrong and how can we prevent it from going wrong again. But don’t forget to take as much time to focus on what went right and feel pride in the accomplishments and achievements of the past year. I believe giving ourselves positive reinforcement will propel us forward to have an evening greater year ahead.

Shanah Tova,

Rabbi Efrem Goldberg

PARSHA SUMMARY

Moshe's discourse. Moshe commenced this poetic discourse to the people by invoking the heavens and the earth as eternal witnesses to his warnings.

Moshe ascends Mt. Nevo. After completing this address, Moshe was told to ascend Mt. Nevo so that he would be able to see the Promised Land before he dies.

HAFTORAH INSIGHT

At the end of the Haftorah read on Rosh Hashana, Hannah brings her son Shmuel to the place of her prayers and presents him to Eli. She thanks Hashem for the salvation He provided in giving her the son she longed for greatly. With as much vigor as her first prayers, Hannah thanks Hashem for the wonderful son she was given.

Salvation is an interesting concept. It is central to so many religions, yet each one uses it in a different way. We pray for salvation three times a day in our Shemoneh Esrei. Commonly, salvation is a solution to a terrible tragedy. In Hannah’s use of the term, we find a connotation completely different than ultimate salvation. While Hannah’s pain was very real, it doesn’t seem to make the list of national tragedies that require Divine Salvation. Rather, Hannah presents a novel idea; salvation according to the Torah is not an answer to national tragedy, but rather to personal pain. Divine salvation comes to the individual just as much as to the nation.

As we look forward to the coming year, let us take a moment to look back at the past year. Let us recognize all the great things, the great privileges, and the personal salvation that we’ve enjoyed this year. With as much fervor that we pray for a good year to come, let us thank Hashem for a great year past.

BRS OUTREACH REVOLUTION

Just imagine for a moment that, among the seven Minyanim that are being run over Rosh Hashana on the Hahn Judaic Campus of Boca Raton Synagogue, there is a real special treasure. Over 200 people have signed up and are ready to attend an inspiring Beginner Service led by Chazan Daniel Adler, I know that all of our hard work and preparation will pay off. I also want to thank Rick Andron who will be blowing the Shofar and has also helped me prepare for this year's service.

A lot of people ask me if it is worth running a program for unaffiliated Jews that will be inspired, will then head back home, and we won't hear from them until the Yamim Noraim next year. So I always answer two things. First, something is always better than nothing. If this is all they connect with the entire year, it's certainly better to come to this program than sit at home watching television in the living room. But, more importantly, that has NOT been our experience. Almost all of our participants do return for a number of the programs. Here at BRS and the BRJE, we do everything we can to, not only connect them with our next program, but also with YOU. On Rosh Hashana, we will be handing out appeal cards with all of the participant's names and contact information printed on the cards. They will look the same and even have fold down tabs, but instead of asking for money, I'll be asking them to sign up for one of our twelve classes that the BRIE will be offering in November. Each class is five weeks in length and will culminate with a huge Chanukah party. We are also letting everyone know that they can sign up for our BRS/BRJE Sukkot dinner on the first night of Sukkot in the Shul Sukkah. It's a great way for the members of our community to meet and connect with our special guests. I always make sure that our guests know and are well informed about the next great program so that they can continue their Jewish journey.

Shana Tova, and I want to wish you a happy and healthy sweet new year!! Inspire yourself to inspire others...

THE SHECHET FAMILY STAINED GLASS WINDOW

This week, BRS is especially pleased to celebrate the installation of the magnificent Jerusalem window above the Aron Kodesh in the Rand Sanctuary. The window was donated by Mr. and Mrs. David Shechet in honor of the Shechet Family several years ago. The stained glass was designed and produced by Cris Soderholm, who has done many other beautiful synagogue windows in the area. This project was truly a labor of love and is difficult to find adequate words to express our appreciation to Cris for her inspiration, dedication, and artisanal ability that went into the creation of this spectacular work of art that now graces our sanctuary. We are sure that it will serve to inspire us all and we thank the committee members who worked on this project over the past year, including Rabbi Efrem Goldberg, President Daniel J. Katz, Helen Cohan, Lynn W. Hahn, and committee chairman Jonathan Charm.

ERUV TAVSHILIN

If you forgot to make an Eruv Tavshilin, you can rely on the Eruv made by Rabbi Goldberg on behalf of the community.

FIRST AID INFORMATION

The following is information on first aid available at BRS. Hopefully we will not need to use any of these.

1. First aid supplies are located under the Bimah in all of the Minyanim and in tote bags on a shelf in the main lobby coat closet.
2. A small oxygen tank is available in the Rand Sanctuary and Social Hall.
3. A defibrillator is in the Rand Sanctuary (main Shul) to the left of the door post as you enter. It has been checked and is operating.
4. 911 should be called for any emergencies. There is a land telephone line in Rabbi Goldberg’s office. There is also a land line on the second floor of the high school. Shimmie Kaminetsky, who daven’s in the Shechet Minyan, will have the key to the computer room and other offices on the second floor where the phone(s) are located. If he is not there, a marked key will be left in his Tallit bag. (FYI - if you use a cell phone to call 911, you need to tell them the address of the building - 7900 Montoya Circle.)

NEVER SPEND A YOM TOV MEAL ALONE

BRS seeks to ensure that none of our single members spend a Yom Tov meal by themselves. To join our database and receive regular invitations, please email peninaflug@comcast.net. We are also putting together a Hachnasat Orhim committee of host homes. To volunteer to host, please email peninaflug@comcast.net.

SHALSHEET BAT MITZVAH PROGRAM

Coming soon for Bat Mitzvah age girls and their mothers, starting Sunday, October 30th at 10:00 am. Stay posted for more information in the mail. Any questions? email Yocheved Goldberg: goldbergmom@gmail.com
Dear Congregants,

I know the economy is still bad. Everyone is struggling but, if we want the greatness of this community to continue, we need everyone to support the Kol Nidre Appeal. During these hard times, we don’t need less programming from the Shul - we need more. Every month, the Shul’s bills come and they have to be paid. I ask that you join in supporting this year’s appeal. Membership dues only cover a portion of the funds it takes to run BRS. Rest assured that your money will be spent wisely and conservatively. Your donation will be for our, for our children’s, and for our grandchildren’s benefit.

We thank and bless you for your generosity and kindness, and pray that Hashem rewards you in consideration of your goodness. Below are the list of people who have already contributed toward this year’s appeal (List in Formation).

Respectfully Yours,

BRS AUXILIARIES, ETC.

WOMEN’S MIKVAH

The hours for the Women’s Mikvah are Sunday through Thursday, 8:30 pm to 10:30 pm (last appointment is at 9:00 pm). For Friday and Yom Tov appointments, please call three days in advance. On Saturday and Fast Days, open an hour after Havdalah, for only 1 hour thereafter. In order to better assist you everyday, appointments are strongly advised. Please call (561) 394-5854.

EMPTY NESTERS

We are planning two amazing events at Sugar Sand Park, and we need to book early in order to get the best prices!!!

1) Neil Simon’s “Broadway Bound” (Presented by the Boca Raton Theatre Guild) Sunday, January 15, 2012 at 2:00 pm. Tickets $18 per person
2) Magic of the Mind (presented by Gary Goodman) Prepare yourself for a mind blowing journey into the world of mentalist and comedic Gary Goodman as he performs his humorous mind reading and telekinesis show! Saturday Evening, February 4, 2012 at 8:00 pm. Tickets $12 per person for advance booking. Please send in your check as soon as possible to either Sylvia Broide at 7890 Lago Del Mar Drive, #145 or Rita Rubin (561) 372-5709.

BOCA RATON COMMUNITY ERUV

The Boca Raton Community Eruv is in need of funds. It is now possible to sponsor the Eruv for a particular Shabbat for $360. Donations can now also be made through our website www.bocaruruv.org, or please contact Chani Salamon at (561) 392-1026 for more information. Please help, as we ALL benefit from the Eruv. The Eruv is something we all rely on and often take for granted. If you have not yet contributed, please consider doing so in order to ensure that the Eruv can be checked and maintained, regularly.

CHESED

The Boca Raton Simchas Gemach is up and running. Please contact us if you are making a Simcha and are in need of centerpieces or vases, etc. for your Simcha. Also, we welcome any gently used or new table centerpieces, tablecloths, etc. that could be contributed to this worthy cause. We would like to be able to provide all members of our community with the accessories to make their Simchas elegant and special. All proceeds from this Gemach will be donated to Tzedakah. Please contact, Baila Kaplan at (917) 385-9659 or Michal Marcus at (917) 804-6924.

SOCIAL ACTION

Mahmoud Abbas has presented a formal application for recognition of a Palestinian state to Secretary General Ban Ki-Moon of the U.N., bypassing the need for a negotiated settlement with Israel. Call the White House (202-456-1111) to insist that President Obama must exercise the United States veto power at the Security Council.

BIKUR CHOLIM

It’s good to see our own Jonathan Charm back in Shul again. Take a look on the BRS website and view what a beautiful job he did about the new Shabbat room. Stay well Jonathan – VP Public Relations & Advertising.

MUSICAL CHEVRA

The musical Chevra meets monthly to listen & enjoy classical & popular music. For details please contact Moshe Leib or Ruth Stuarr at Ruthandmsluu@gmail.com

BRS TEENS/YOUTH

Calling all high school teens not in a Day School or Yeshiva!

BRS Teens is looking to start Torah study & Pizza for kids who aren’t in a Day School or teens that are in a Day School and want to examine issues not normally touched upon in your day. We’ll be discussing God, the next world, a messianic era, is the world fair...and anything of interest that comes up. There’s no set curriculum, come ask the questions you’re interested in.

If you’re interested in attending, please email Rabbi Pilichowski at rup@brsonline.org

Getting to Know You...and Getting to know what to Eat

Rabbi Pilichowski would like to get to know you and would like to feed you. If you’d like to grab a bite on Thursday nights please give him a call - (561)739-5120

Teen Minyan - What a Shabbat at the Mizrahis!

This past week Teen Minyan was happy to “vacate the building” for the multitude of Smachot BRS was privileged to celebrate. Teen Minyan was held at the Mizrahi house. The Mizrahis not only hosted the regular Teen Minyan crowd, but the Weinbaum 9th and 10th grade boys also came. The Mizrahis hosted in classic Mizrahi style, setting up an impromptu Kiddush after Davening with enough food to feed the 100 teens who attended. Wow and Kol Hakavod!
